

Being Prepared

If you are going to be stuck at home without electricity for a long period of time...be prepared. Do you live in the “country” where an ice-storm might “cut” power in your neighborhood for days...have an appropriate stockpile of food that can be prepared without the use of electricity. Don’t forget to have a manual-type can opener. If you live in an abundant amount of blankets and covers.

+++++

Less than 80 days to go!

+++++

Y2K

We hope that everybody had a wonderful Christmas and holiday season...and that all of your computers made it through Y2K “AOK.”